SOURCE NATURALS INTRODUCES - GOJI BERRY BLEND

Traditional Health Drink of China

Scotts Valley, California—Source Naturals introduces Goji Berry Blend, a nutrient rich drink which combines a bright red Goji berry concentrate with 7 additional natural fruit concentrates to enhance the many benefits attributed to Goji berry. Modern science has shown that Goji supports healthy circulation, immune health, blood sugar metabolism and antioxidant defense, 4 of the 12 deep metabolic systems identified by Source Naturals as crucial for your overall health and wellness.

Source Naturals Spokesperson Tony Lucchesi says this: “The antioxidants in Goji berry neutralize free radicals also known as Reactive Oxygen Species (ROS) in order to protect the body from oxidation.”

Goji is recognized as a general health and longevity tonic and tonifier for strengthening all the major organs and specifically for benefiting healthy vision. According to Lucchesi, “Source Naturals is pleased to introduce this potent, flavorful new product, Goji Berry Blend, providing the full benefits of this legendary giant of wellness.”

Source Naturals encourages all their customers to reclaim their health confidently through education, self care, and intelligent lifestyle choices. Through scientific research and setting high standards and goals for its products, Source Naturals provides opportunities for a better quality of life.
